Re: United States v. State of New Mexico, ex rel. State Engineer, No. 07cv0681,
Subproceeding I, Zuni Indian Claims

Dear Counsel and Parties pro se:

As you know, the January 3, 2008, Initial Scheduling and Planning Order, Docket No. 151, provides for: initial disclosures made by July 30; the development of a proposed discovery plan by counsel and unrepresented parties no later than August 26; and a scheduling and management conference on August 27 (Paragraphs 3.5 - 3.7).

That conference will be set for August 27, beginning at 10:00 a.m., and continuing until all business is completed. So far, the agenda includes discussion of the Joint Document Depository (see Paragraph 3.3 of the Initial Scheduling and Planning Order, and the Status Report Concerning Joint Document Depository, filed April 17, 2008, No. 229) and the development of a scheduling and procedural order. No later than August 6, any party may submit a request to include other items relevant to future proceedings. I will then file the notice and order setting the conference and include an agenda.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Vickie L. Gabin
